

Pay.Gov Credit Card Security

Use of the Credit Card Security Code will become mandatory with Pay.gov on February 1, 2007. Although the security code field has been on the data entry screen and its use has been optional, it will become a required field, as an additional protection for credit card holders, effective February 1, 2007.