

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF INDIANA
INDIANAPOLIS DIVISION

NOTICE OF CHANGE IN PROCESSING
STAY RELIEF MOTIONS IN CHAPTER 13 CASES
(INDIANAPOLIS DIVISION ONLY)

Effective May 11, 2009, the Clerk's Office will no longer set hearings on Motions for Relief from Stay [and Abandonment] in chapter 13 cases in the Indianapolis Division unless an objection to the motion is filed.

The Block Scheduling feature will be turned off. Filing parties will be responsible for serving a 15-day objection notice on the appropriate parties, as required by Local Rule B-4001-1. The notice with certificate of service must be filed with the motion, or a notice of deficient filing will be issued. (Remember that an appearance must precede or accompany the motion.)

If an objection to the requested relief is filed, a hearing will be scheduled at the earliest possible date, and separate notice of the hearing will be issued by the Clerk.

Additional changes to block scheduling, including further refinement of the stay relief/objection process, will be announced this summer.
