

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF INDIANA

RECENT PROCEDURES MANUAL UPDATES

The Court's Procedures Manual remains a work in progress, and is frequently being updated. Not every change is highlighted in the Recent Changes to Procedures section on the main page (the Introduction page). The date of the last change to any page is shown in the upper right corner of that page.

Here are some recent additions or edits to the Manual:

The section on resolving adversary proceedings - "My adversary has been resolved. What should I file?" – has also been updated to provide additional guidance on what terms should NOT be in a consent to judgment.

The Procedures Manual will be undergoing further edits to address (forthcoming) changes to the local rules. As the new Judges become more familiar with CM/ECF and our procedures, additional revisions are expected. Check the Recent Changes to Procedures section periodically and watch for future occasional notices like this one.

A new more user-friendly front page is also coming soon.
