

Requesting Unclaimed Funds

Procedure for Requesting Funds

Applications for Payment of Unclaimed Funds must be submitted to the Clerk's office for filing. Applications will be reviewed and forwarded to the appropriate Judge for an order.

Payment will be made either by U.S. Treasury check or, if banking information is provided on the AO 213, by electronic funds transfer (EFT). Payment shall be issued in the name of the claim owner. If a corporation or business has changed ownership, the payment will be made in the name of the original claim owner n/k/a the new claim owner. Joint claims will be paid by one check payable to both parties.
