

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF INDIANA

ORDER CONCERNING STATUS )
AND MAINTENANCE OF ) GENERAL ORDER 22-0005
GENERAL ORDERS )

ORDER

(1) The following general orders are still in effect as of this date:

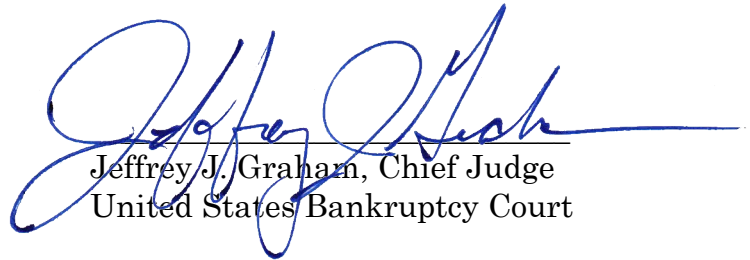

- 10-0001: directing informal dispute resolution in Chapter 13 cases (New Albany Division only)
- 12-0006: adopted the latest version of interim rule 1007-I
- 16-0004: regarding deposit and investment of registry funds
- 18-0001: refunding fees
- 20-0002: concerning temporary waiver of signature requirement on debtor's documents
- 20-0004: concerning evidence at telephonic hearings
- 20-0010: installment fees payment schedule
- 21-0001: highly sensitive document procedures
- 21-0002: mandatory electronic filing by non-attorneys
- 22-0002: refund procedure for erroneous Pay.gov forms service payments
- 22-0003: Ch. 13 loss mitigation program
- 22-0004: Ch. 13 Presumed Reasonable fee

(2) General orders adopting changes to the local rules remain effective, but shall be archived and removed from the General Orders page of the Court's website 30 days after the effective date of the rules changes in those orders. The current version of the local rules always supersedes any earlier general order.

(3) A general order rescinding another general order, and the order that was rescinded, shall be archived and removed from the General Orders page of the Court's website 30 days after the issuance of the order rescinding.

(4) Only the general orders listed in paragraph (1) and all future general orders not subject to archiving pursuant to paragraphs (2) and (3) shall appear on the General Orders page of the Court's website. All other general orders shall be archived and removed from the General Orders page of the Court's website.

May 23, 2022

Jeffrey J. Graham, Chief Judge
United States Bankruptcy Court