GENERAL ORDER 26-0003

ORDER

Due to a service interruption affecting the Bankruptcy Noticing Center (“BNC”) beginning October 9, 2026, certain notices required in bankruptcy cases and proceedings have not been transmitted. The Court finds that these circumstances constitute good cause for relief under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9006. It is, therefore, ORDERED that:

1. Affected Notices. No party shall be prejudiced by a failure to respond to a notice that was not timely served because of the BNC service interruption, subject to applicable law and further order of the Court.
2. Deadlines and Hearings. Upon request of a party in interest, or on its own motion where permitted by law, the Court may extend or reset deadlines or continue hearings as necessary to address the interruption. Parties may request relief by written motion or orally at a previously scheduled hearing. Parties should confer when practicable and advise the Court whether the requested relief is agreed upon or opposed. All scheduled hearings shall proceed unless the Court orders otherwise.
3. Further Orders. This Order shall remain in effect until further order of the Court.
