ORDER

Due to the ongoing service interruption of the Bankruptcy Noticing Center (“BNC”), and to facilitate the continued administration of bankruptcy cases and proceedings, pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002, 2003, and 9006, it is hereby, ORDERED:

1. Voluntary Notice and Service by Parties. For the duration of the BNC service interruption, a party seeking relief from the Court by motion, application, plan, or other request may elect, at its expense, to provide any notice associated with that request that would otherwise be transmitted through the BNC. A party making that election is hereby designated and directed by the Court, pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002, to provide such notice in accordance with applicable law, including all requirements concerning the recipients, manner, and timing of notice. The party shall promptly file a certificate of service identifying the documents served, recipients, date, and method of service. Nothing in this paragraph requires a party to elect this procedure or alters any notice or service obligation otherwise imposed by applicable law, rule, or Court order.
2. Shifting Notice and Service from the Court to Parties. Nothing in this Order limits the Court's authority under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002 and 9007, where circumstances warrant, to direct a movant or other party to give any notice required by applicable law, rule, or Court order, and to set the time, recipients, and form and manner of such notice.
3. Meetings of Creditors. Meetings of creditors pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 341 shall continue to be convened as scheduled. If notice of a meeting has not been served due to the BNC service interruption, the meeting shall be adjourned and shall not be concluded until proper notice has been provided and creditors have had an opportunity to participate. The presiding trustee may conduct such limited examinations as are reasonably necessary to protect the estate and discharge their duties, without prejudice to the right of creditors to participate following proper notice. Adjournments shall comply with Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2003(e).

4. General Order 26-0003 remains in effect, and this general order shall remain effective until further order of the Court.
