

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF INDIANA

CHANGES IN COURTROOM SERVICES – INDIANAPOLIS DIVISION

As a result of one impending departure, one planned retirement, and one transition to a Judicial Assistant position, in the next few weeks the number of Courtroom Deputies serving in the Indianapolis Division will decline by three. Those positions will not be filled.

Although these moves have not occurred officially, the Courtroom Services team has opted to shift staff now so that a smooth transition is possible. The changes are reflected in the contact information on the Court's website, and repeated here for your reference:

Judge	Courtroom Deputy	Telephone (317)	Email
James K. Coachys	Heather Heiser-Davis	229-3809	Heather_Heiser-Davis@insb.uscourts.gov
James M. Carr	Heather Butler	229-3833	Heather_Butler@insb.uscourts.gov
Robyn L. Moberly	Marcella Lockert	229-3820	Marcella_Lockert@insb.uscourts.gov
Frank J. Otte	Tomi Hollywood	229-3819	Tomi_Hollywood@insb.uscourts.gov

Cathy Ford continues to provide support principally on Judge Otte cases but also supervises Courtroom Services for the entire District and in that role supports the other Courts. In addition, Laura Trepes, soon to be Judge Coachys' Judicial Assistant, will continue with some Courtroom Services work and is assigned specific digits. Kristin Goss in New Albany oversees Judge Lorch's remaining Indianapolis Division cases. Watch for other Judicial Assistants and Case Managers to assume duties previously performed by the Courtroom Deputies.

As the restructuring continues, the Website will be updated with the most current contact information. Be sure to check for new assignments periodically, to ensure that your call or inquiry gets handled promptly.

June 13, 2013

/s/ Kevin P. Dempsey
Clerk