

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
FOR THE SEVENTH CIRCUIT
219 South Dearborn Street
Chicago, Illinois 60604

PRESS RELEASE

Chief Judge Michael B. Brennan of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit is pleased to announce the appointment of Meredith R. Theisen to a 14-year term as United States Bankruptcy Judge for the Southern District of Indiana. Ms. Theisen succeeds U.S. Bankruptcy Judge Robyn L. Moberly who retired in June 2024. Ms. Theisen will take the oath of office and join the bankruptcy bench in Indianapolis on January 4, 2027.

Ms. Theisen earned her bachelor's degree from the University of Wisconsin Madison. She graduated law school from Thomas M. Cooley Law School in Lansing, Michigan. She began her legal career as an associate at Dale & Eke, P.C. and later became a partner at Rubin & Levin, P.C. practicing bankruptcy litigation, secured transactions, and commercial litigation. Ms. Theisen currently oversees most bankruptcy matters for the firm. In addition, she serves as a Chapter 7 bankruptcy panel trustee for the Southern District of Indiana, Indianapolis Division.

Ms. Theisen's professionalism and integrity signal that she will make a great United States Bankruptcy Judge in the Southern District of Indiana. We welcome her to our bankruptcy bench.
