

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF INDIANA

FEE AWARD LANGUAGE IN ORDERS LIFTING STAY OR ABANDONING PROPERTY

The Bankruptcy Judges have determined that they will not include an award of attorney fees or expenses to the prevailing party when granting a motion for relief from stay and/or abandonment.

Please do not include language awarding such fees and expenses in your proposed orders when the Court is granting the relief requested.

The Court will continue to award fees and expenses, as appropriate, when the request for relief is denied.

August 14, 2008

Kevin P. Dempsey
Clerk